ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CATHOLIC CHURCH

LOOKING AHEAD TO SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST
 Readings: Ex 24:3-8/Heb 9:11-15/Mk 14:12-16, 22-26

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity: In today's Gospel and reading from the letter of St. Paul we hear of the gift of the Triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. In our devotional life we make the sign of the cross and recite the "Glory Be" as an expression of our faith as a Trinitarian people. But what does it mean for Christian stewards to accept in a practical way the experience of God in this three-fold gift? Is it a call to share our own life in community, with compassion and love, and to work for healing, justice, peace and unity? Is it an invitation to invite others into fellowship with us in the unity of the Father, Son and Spirit?

I would like to welcome two new lay ministers to our parish staff. Chelsea Wilde hails from the Detroit area and will serve as the Pastoral Assistant for Youth Ministry (grades 5 through 12). She comes with a great deal of enthusiasm, creativity, and experience. She had once served in Portland and is excited about returning to the great Pacific Northwest. She is an avid snowboarder and hiker.

Anne Frederick has been chosen to be our new Pastoral Assistant for Stewardship and Evangelization. She comes with a wealth of knowledge and experience having served for several years as the Director of Faith Formation for the Archdiocese of Seattle. She is a proud grandmother of two. May the Lord bless Chelsea and Anne in every way. I'm looking forward to them joining us in the next few weeks.

Fr. Jim

STEWARDSHIP

A Way of Life

"God so Loved, He Gave From a Heart of Gratitude"

The Urgent Call of Jesus Christ

I have often been struck by one paragraph of the U.S. bishop's pastoral letter, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response: "Jesus' call is urgent. He does not tell people to follow him at some time in the future but here and now-at this moment, in these circumstances. There can be no delay" (p.14). For me, this is a powerful statement that speaks to the practical implications of the call and challenge of discipleship and stewardship.

It is easy to tell ourselves that we will get around to living and growing as a follower of Jesus at some future point in our lives-when we are more settled, our children are older, our jobs more secure and so on. In doing so, we delay our response to the Lord's continual offer of salvation, mercy, forgiveness and love. We minimize the impact of faith, falling deaf to God's voice and blind to the needs of others.

To accept the urgent call of Christ is to hear the voice of the Lord and to respond in the way in which we live now, not in some distant future. Not only this, Christ does not call us in an abstract way, but instead within the particular circumstances of our lives. This is not about some vague and ideal future. It is about making decisions, discerning activities and carrying out our lives as Christ's people at home, in our workplace or school, in our parish, our cities and towns and then in the world.

In this Easter season, we celebrate Christ's victory over death. We are called again to draw others to the new life that is offered in Jesus Christ. When we hear and respond to Christ's urgent call, we witness to the profound impact of faith in our lives and we evangelize, drawing others to a deep encounter with our Lord. We do this by stewarding our lives, gifts, blessings and resources, here and now, in this moment, in the very real circumstances of our lives.

Solidarity Prayer Walk

One on the Journey: A Solidarity Prayer Walk invites you a special experience of prayer, solidarity, and kinship. The Solidarity Prayer Walk is a spiritual journey into the heart of our deepest selves and back out into this world with a greater understanding of who we are and who we are called to be. Using photography and written reflection, this self guided meditation invites you into the heart of who we are-One body in Christ-and to pray in a special way with and for our sisters and brothers around the world. Take time to open your heart, listen to the Spirit and allow yourself to be lovingly drawn along on the path of discipleship

"This prayer opportunity will be available for the next couple weeks in the sanctuary of the church at each of the stations of the cross. Please find time to make a connection with our neighbors around the world."
