GARDEN OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Fighting hunger one garden bed at a time!

ABOUT THE GARDEN

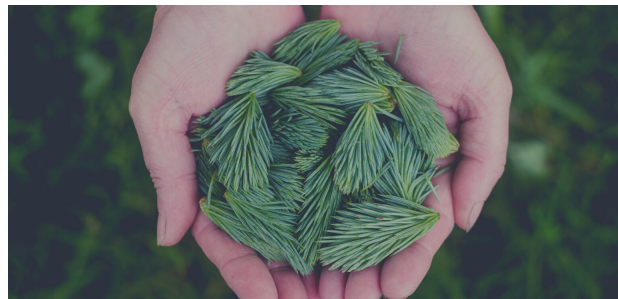

The Garden of the Good Shepherd is a ministry at St. John's working to help with food insecurities in our local community.

WHO THE GARDEN SERVES

Donations are taken directly to The Storehouse-Covington Food Bank. The Storehouse is a non-profit food distribution program for families in the greater Covington area. It is located at Real Life Church.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

WORK THE GARDEN

Come lend a helping hand by planting, weeding and harvesting. Find the garden near the SJTB McMullen Education Center.

DONATE YOUR PRODUCE

Do you have a home garden? Extras from your grocery purchase? Bring it to our collection cooler, located outside on the benches of the McMullen Center. Put up the flag to let us know you made a donation!

FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Still want to help but gardening is not your calling? Financial support is always welcome and appreciated. Send your donation to Covington Storehouse and/or SJTB Garden of the Good Shepherd Ministry.
