Tending God's Garden: A Labor of Love by Our Creation Care Ministry

Our garden ministers are faithfully at work in the Garden of the Good Shepherd, tending and caring for the grounds with love and dedication - nurturing both the earth and our parish community. Whether you have a green thumb or simply enjoy being outdoors, there's a place for you in this ministry. Every plant, every hand, and every act of care helps our garden and our faith flourish.

Our Mission

United in the Holy Spirit, we are a multicultural community celebrating Mass in four languages as we strive to live humility, gentleness, patience, bearing one another through love, striving to preserve unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body, one spirit, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God.
-Ephesians 4:1-6

Stewardship is a way of life, and the diversity of our gifts is used to answer Christ's call to proclaim and live the Gospel.

Gather in God's Name!
Grow in God's Time!
Go in God's Spirit!

One Church, Many Gifts Update from Annual Catholic Appeal

Thank you to all who have responded to the needs of our regional Church by supporting this campaign. As of July 17, $129,222 (94.7% of our goal) has been pledged towards our parish goal of $136,467.00 with 294 parish households participating.

We need another $7,245 to bring us over the top and get a rebate for next year's project, which will support Catholic Relief Services and the Archdiocese Mission Essential Parish Family Fund. Catholic Relief Services has experienced a decrease in funding, impacting its ability to provide vital humanitarian assistance. The Mission Essential Parish Family Fund supports parish families within our Archdiocese in economically depressed regions or rural areas with small populations. This support allows the parish to carry out the mission of the Church.

Thank you, once again, for your generosity. You can still donate by filling out an envelope in the pews, or go online to archseattle.org/GiveACA.

FAITH ON FIRE CATHOLIC WEEKEND

This year's Faith on Fire, the signature Catholic event of the Pacific Northwest, will take place from July 25-27 at St. Mary Catholic Church in Anacortes. The keynote speaker is Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers.

Faith on Fire is a spiritually enriching celebration of fellowship, family, prayer, and vocations. We come together to rejoice in the beauty and joy of our Catholic Christian faith. Enjoy inspiring speakers, uplifting music, and so much more! Camping is allowed on the lawn for just $15 for the weekend! (RVs, trailers, and tents are welcome.)

The event is free, but donations are welcome. Visit St. Mary at Anacortes for more information.

Evolving Our Morning Communion Services

By Laurie Moloney

Recently the Church released a new translation of the Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharistic Mystery Outside Mass ritual book. St. John the Baptist, with guidance from Seminarian Simon Stehr, took this opportunity to re-evaluate the communion services that are held on days when there is no Mass - 9:00 am on Tuesdays and Fridays.

For years, we have blended elements from two distinct liturgies - the Word & Communion liturgy and the Liturgy of the Hours - into a single service. However, as these are separate liturgical celebrations, it is more fitting to offer them individually rather than combined. So we will now celebrate both liturgies one after the other: beginning with the Word and Communion service, followed by the Liturgy of the Hours. The two together will not be any longer than the hybrid liturgy, which is usually 30 to 45 minutes.

Our prayer leaders will first lead you in the Word and Communion service. This begins with the Introductory Rites, including the Confiteor - the "I confess..." prayer - followed by the readings of the day and the Communion Rite.

Afterwards, you are encouraged to stay for the second liturgy, the Liturgy of the Hours, which is the daily prayer of the Church. It includes Psalms, Scriptures, and Canticles. There is also an opportunity for faith sharing during this liturgy.

Both liturgies are important to our faith life. Word and Communion unites us to the sacrifice of Christ in the Mass as well as to our community (Eucharisticum Mysterium, no. 3e). The Liturgy of the Hours, particularly morning prayer, recalls the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, the true light enlightening all people (John 1:9).

Come join us for these two beautiful liturgies of the Church.

Reminder:
Blood Pressure Check next weekend
after Sunday morning Masses

For those of you who purchased tickets, we'll see you at the ballpark (Cheney Stadium in Tacoma) on Sunday July 20 at 1:30 pm.

From One Servant to Another

Hello Fellow Parishioners,

It is my pleasure to formally and publicly welcome the newest member of our staff, Christina Daniel. She will be directing the ministry for our pre-kindergarten through Grade 4 students and their families! Christina brings to us a wealth of experience, education, and faith as a Catholic Christian. Please be sure to read Christina's brief bio below and take a moment to welcome her in this position when you see her.

I also want to take this opportunity to publicly thank Karen Remy-Anderson for sharing her great leadership, ministry, and care while she directed our children and their families in these programs this past year. Although Karen has left this position, she will continue to be a parishioner and volunteer in different ministries in our parish!

In Christ,

From Soil to Soul: Our Garden Grows On

On a beautiful and crisp June 7 morning of this year, the Garden of the Good Shepherd team enjoyed a time of friendship and working with the earth by planting more vegetable starters. Earlier in the year, they planted peas and beets. It wasn't long before the weeds also sprouted. Not to be outdone, they replaced the weeds with starters for tomatoes, cucumbers, and beans. A few months after planting the beets, 17 lbs. were harvested in mid-June and delivered to The Storehouse, Covington's food bank. The team hopes to harvest more fresh veggies over the summer and into early fall to donate to the food bank.

St. John the Baptist is thankful for the following faithful garden volunteers on June 7: Joanne Ackerman, Margie Battisti, Pat Carroll, Paul Dehmer, Hazel Kroll, Javier, Emilio Mayorga, and Michele Myers. Their dedication will allow the garden to flourish and produce food for our hungry neighbors. (Photos by Paul Dehmer [beets] and Margie Battisti [statue].)

If you would like to help out with watering or harvesting the fruits of this garden over the coming months, please contact Kathy Wickward in the office.

*O Blessed Mother Mary,
pray for us and for this garden,
that it may always flourish in God's light. Amen.*

A Heart for Faith and Children

By Christina Daniel

Greetings in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ!

I am Christina Daniel, and I feel honored and blessed to be the new Pastoral Assistant for Elementary Faith Formation. I come from a devout Catholic family in Southern India. As for my education, I went to a Catholic school run by the Presentation Sisters and finished my bachelor's and master's degrees from Catholic colleges as well. I am so thankful for the Catholic education that helped me grow in my love for Jesus.

I am blessed with my loving husband, Daniel, and two beautiful children, Kevin and Steffi. We have been parishioners at St. John the Baptist since 2018. I have served as a catechist from grades Pre-K to Grade 6 for the past eight years. It is from this experience that I discovered my love for teaching young children. This led me to go back to college to earn my Master's in Elementary Education in Indianapolis in 2023.

As I look forward to taking on this new role of serving our young elementary families, I am excited and filled with joy to help young ones come close to Jesus. For Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me . . . for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

May the Holy Spirit lead us and guide us through the intercession of our Mother Mary and St. Joseph.

Blessings,
Christina Daniel

Hazte Mío: A Journey of Hearing to Love

Hi! I'm Pedro X. Madera-Cuevas, and I'd like to share my discernment story, how I came to hear God's call to serve Him and His people. Like every story, mine has a beginning, and it starts in Puerto Rico (PR), a small island in the Caribbean and a U.S. territory. I'm from a town called Lares, where I grew up, studied through high school, enjoyed drawing, played my favorite sport, volleyball, and lived my Catholic faith.

My family always encouraged me to live my faith. I would participate in Mass celebrations, go to youth group and participate of retreats. From a young age, I didn't question much my Catholic faith. Even as a teen, I tried to remain faithful to the Church's teachings. During those years, my family and I worked on a farm growing a variety of tomatoes. Every afternoon after school, I had to work on the farm, then study, before I could go to volleyball practice.

After graduating high school, I was accepted into the Mechanical Engineering program at the University of Puerto Rico. University brought its challenges. During my first year, Hurricane Maria devastated the island, leaving us without water for three months and without electricity for five. Yet amid the hardship, the community came together to help each other. There I glimpsed the mystical Body of Christ in action.

In January 2020, while starting my sixth semester, my life was shaken again when a series of earthquakes destroyed my family's home the day after the Epiphany. Spiritually, I broke. I questioned God: "Why us?" Wasn't the hurricane and the life on the farm enough? I believed God didn't care. I still believed He existed, but I hated Him, but I kept my hatred in silence. I couldn't stand even watching Mass on TV during the pandemic.

In 2021, I landed an internship with Amazon as a Product Design Engineer in Seattle, WA, my first time alone on the U.S. mainland. But within my first week, I was hospitalized with myocarditis caused by an unknown reason, damaging part of my heart. Still, I pushed through, completed the internship, and returned in Summer 2022 for another. Eventually, I was offered a full-time engineering position starting in July 2023.

In December 2022, I graduated from my engineering degree. That Christmas, my eldest sister gave me a book about Blessed Carlo Acutis. Even though I still carried anger toward God, I decided to read it out of respect for her. Carlo's love for technology, his deep devotion to the Eucharist, and his unwavering faith, especially in the face of leukemia, touched me deeply. Despite his suffering, he continued to praise the Lord with joy. Reading about how he embraced his Catholic faith from a young age stirred something in me, it brought a wave of nostalgia and made me realize how much I missed truly enjoying my own faith. Through his story, I learned about Eucharistic miracles and how Christ gives us His very heart, His myocardium, out of love. That made me pause and reflect: If God gives me His heart, why shouldn't I give Him mine? Through Carlo's intercession, my trust in God was rekindled, and that's where my journey back truly began. I returned to church and prayer. Through Our Lady's intercession, I realized how much Jesus suffers for us. As I prayed the Rosary daily, the idea of serving God completely, possibly as a priest, entered my heart. I kept this thought quiet because I was about to move to Seattle for my new job.

In Seattle, I began attending Christ Our Hope parish downtown and later met the Hispanic Young Adult Group "Todo X Cristo" at Holy Spirit Church. I joined them for a retreat at Camp Hamilton, and there, during a moment of silent prayer in front of the cross, I heard in my heart the words: "Hazte mío" ("Be mine"). I felt immense peace after my prayer, but doubt started to sneak in. I thought, "Was I imagining things?" The next day's Gospel was when Jesus saves Peter from sinking: "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" I knew God was speaking to me.

I joined Holy Spirit's young adult group, even traveling by train and Uber since I had no car. I eventually made wonderful friends who helped me get to and from church. Over the following months, I heard those same words, "Hazte mío", twice more. I began to take the idea of the priesthood seriously.

In January 2024, joking with a friend, I said I'd apply to seminary the day I was unemployed. In April 2024, I was laid off when my program at Amazon shut down. Suddenly, I faced a choice: pursue another job or listen to the quiet voice calling me deeper.

On July 1st, 2024, during Mass, the Gospel read: "Another disciple said to him, 'Lord, let me go first and bury my father.' But Jesus answered him, 'Follow me, and let the dead bury their dead.'" That same day, the Eucharistic Procession took place for Family 30. It was a turning point in my discernment. Hearing that Gospel and witnessing Fr. Carlos leading the people toward Jesus in the Eucharist moved me deeply. In that moment, I knew God was calling me—I felt a clear decision rise in my heart to respond to His call. I shared this with Fr. Carlos, and that conversation opened the door for me to begin the affiliate process with the Archdiocese of Seattle.

When it was time for me to apply to the seminary, I had an interview with the Admissions Board. During that process, I was told that the panel was excited about my application but felt it wasn't the right time. Their decision was a "not yet". It was recommended I needed to get to know the Archdiocese better. Even though it wasn't a "yes," it also wasn't a "no," so I stayed persistent in my discernment and didn't lose hope.

In May 2025, I began to experience doubts, wondering if this was truly what God wanted for me. Around that time, a priest from Puerto Rico heard my story and recommended that I attend a vocations retreat on the island. I decided to go, but before traveling, I prayed and asked God to give me clarity. During Eucharistic Adoration at the retreat, I once again heard His familiar voice say: "Be mine." I responded in prayer, "How can I be yours?" And He answered, "Love them."

It was then that I realized the growing need for English-speaking priests in Puerto Rico, due to an increasing number of English-speaking communities. Not long after, the Diocese of Arecibo, my home diocese, offered me the opportunity to apply.

After prayer and reflection, I discerned that God is calling me to learn from the Holy Spirit and St. John the Baptist and take what I have learned and serve in Puerto Rico. Now, my last day at Family 30 will be August 9.

To the altar servers and crew: thank you for your joyful presence, your commitment, and the way you serve with both heart and reverence. In your quiet gestures, your steady hands, and your willing spirits, you remind us that holiness is often found in the simple act of showing up and saying "yes" to God.

To the parishioners: thank you for your warm welcomes, kind conversations, and unwavering support of me in my affiliate program. You reminded me that the Church is a family, and in that family, I found the courage to listen more deeply to God's call.

To the parish staff: thank you for your constant support, your patience, and the way you made space for me to serve and grow. Your witness of humble service showed me how a life given to God can touch hearts in the most ordinary, yet profound ways.

You have all played an irreplaceable role in my discernment. I will carry your love, encouragement, and example with me wherever the Lord leads.

Keep me in your prayers and thank you for everything! - Pedro

Blessed Carlo Acutis, pray for us.

There is need of only one thing.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

In life, there are so many "Marthas" — people and situations that distract us from God. But if we imitate Mary and sit calmly at the feet of Jesus, his Word will guard our hearts from the anxiety of the world.
